

17th Annual
Spring Bear Pow-wow
and Indian Market
Saturday, May 15, 2010
 Official City of Denver "Ribbon Shirt Day"

Regis University Field House
 3333 Regis Blvd (50th Ave) – Denver, Colorado

From I-25 and I-70 in Denver: West on I-70. Exit at Federal Boulevard, and proceed north 2 blocks to Regis Boulevard (50th Avenue). Turn left (west) onto Regis Boulevard. Turn right onto Julian Street entrance to Field House.

Public Invited – Free Admission for all.

All Dancers and Drums Welcome – No Contests.

Cakewalks, Raffles, Frybread, Indian Tacos, and more.

Shop at our community vendors of Native American Fine Arts and Crafts, Books, Music, Craft Supplies, and more.

SCHEDULE

Ground Blessing 9:30AM
 Gourd Dancing 10:0AM–Noon
 Food Booth Open Noon–8:00PM
 Cakewalks Noon
 Grand Entry 1:00PM
 Dinner Break 4:30–6:00PM
 Cakewalks 5:30PM
 Grand Entry 6:00PM

HEAD STAFF

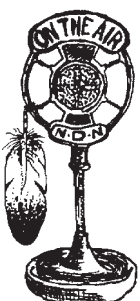

Spiritual LeaderLee Plenty Wolf, Oglala
 EmceeMichael Alley, Otoe Missouri/Rosebud Lakota
 Arena DirectorTony Hedgepeth, Saponi
 Host Northern DrumPlenty Wolf, Lee Plenty Wolf
 Host Southern DrumColorado Intertribal, Delmar & Jesse Hamilton
 Head Gourd DancerMonty Rains, Winnebago
 Honor GuardVolunteer Veterans
Food Booth ...Colorado Menace Native Softball - Lorenzo Tsosie

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:

Bear or Alisa Limvere.....303-648-3414, or email: powwow@ravendancers.org
 Visit Our Web Site<http://ravendancers.org/powwow/>
 Sponsored by:.....The Raven Dancers & alterNative Voices Radio with Regis University

Vendor; Welcome! Please contact Billie at 720-690-8089.

Vendor Application Deadline: May 1, 2010.

No Alcohol, Drugs, or Firearms will be tolerated.

The Committee, Sponsors, Staff, or volunteers are not responsible for accidents, injuries, lost or stolen items, short-funded travelers, damage to personal belongings, lost snags, or divorces.