

Christmas Pow-wow and Holiday Market Saturday, December 10, 2005

Park Hill United Methodist Church

5209 E. Montview Blvd — Denver, Colorado

12 blocks East of Colorado Blvd on Montview Blvd, just east of Denver City Park and Natural History Museum.

Public Invited — Free Admission for all.

All Dancers and Drums Welcome — No Contests.

Cakewalks, Raffles, Frybread, Indian Tacos, and more.

Shop at our community vendors of Native American Fine Arts and Crafts, Books, Music, Craft Supplies, and more.

SCHEDULE

Ground Blessing 9:30AM
Food Booth Open 10:00AM–8:00PM
Gourd Dance 10:00AM–Noon
Grand Entry 1:00PM
Dinner Break 4:30–5:30PM
(Entertainment by Red Feather Woman)
Grand Entry 5:30PM

HEAD STAFF

Spiritual Leader.....Bill Center, Oglala Lakota
Emcee.....Michael Alley, Otoe Missouri/Rosebud Lakota
S. Harrison Sadler, Cherokee
Arena Director.....Mark Quintana, Cheyenne/Kiowa
Terry Battiest, Choctaw
Host Northern Drum.....Denver Singers, Frank Sherwood
Host Southern Drum.....Pawnee Spotted Horse, Bob Iron
Honor Guard.....American Indian Veterans of Colorado

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:

Z. Susanne Aikman .....303-477-8442, or email: Producer@alterNativeVoices.org
Bear or Alisa Limvere.....303-648-3414, or email: powwow@ravendancers.org
Visit Our Web Sites.....<http://ravendancers.org/powwow/> or <http://alterNativeVoices.org/>

VENDORS WELCOME! PLEASE CONTACT COMMITTEE.

Sponsored by alterNative Voices, Raven Dancers/Spring Bear Pow-wow,
Native Ministries Committee – Rocky Mountain Conference – United Methodist Church,
Denver Christian Indian Center, and Sweet Success Press

No Alcohol, Drugs, or Firearms will be tolerated.

The Committee, Sponsors, Staff, or volunteers are not responsible for accidents, injuries, lost or stolen items, short-funded travelers, damage to personal belongings, lost snags, or divorces